

Withdrawal benefit

A withdrawal benefit will be shown on your statement every year. This is the amount you would have received if you'd met a 'condition of release' during that financial year and then withdrawn your money. It's effectively your closing account balance, less any fees and charges.