References to "Suncorp Bank" or "Bank" in this guide means Suncorp Bank (Norfinia Limited ABN 66 010 831 722 AFSL No 229882 Australian Credit Licence 229882).

1. About these terms and conditions

These terms and conditions apply when you request the Home Package Plus and we agree to include your products in this Package.

These terms and conditions are in addition to the terms and conditions that apply to any product or service you include in your Package.

Before you apply for this Package you should read the Personal Deposit Accounts Product Information Document, any credit contract and other documents we give you containing particular terms and conditions.

We can change these terms and conditions and change or withdraw any Product Offer at any time. We will give you notice of changes as required by law.

You accept these terms and conditions by requesting to open a Package or when you receive a Package benefit (whichever first occurs).

2. Definitions

In these terms and conditions, the following words mean:

Package – means the Home Package Plus.

Package Fee – means the Home Package Plus Annual Fee.

Eligible Home Loans – means one or more of the following Suncorp Bank loans eligible for inclusion in the package.

- Standard Variable Rate Home Loans
- Fixed Rate Home Loans, where borrowings are less than or equal to 90% of security property value.
- Existing Access Equity (Line of Credit) Facility

Eligible Credit Cards – means the type of Suncorp Bank credit cards which are eligible for inclusion in the Package. The current eligible credit cards include the Platinum or Standard Clear Options Credit Card.

Qualifying Home Loans – means the type of Eligible Home Loans that can qualify for interest rate discounts.

Mandatory Account – means the first eligible Home loan facility established in the Package. Where multiple loans are established as part of a new package, the customer can request which Eligible Home Loan is the Mandatory Account.

Product Offer – means the product offers referred to in the product offer information table following (or as amended by the Bank from time to time).

You – means each person who holds a Suncorp Bank Everyday Options account and agrees to these terms and conditions. If more than one of you hold the account, “you” includes a reference to each of you singularly and as a group.

3. Eligibility for Home Package Plus

To be eligible for Home Package Plus benefits you need to:

- pay an annual Package Fee;
- hold a Suncorp Bank Everyday Options account;
- hold an Eligible Home Loan;
- be a personal customer or a non-corporate trustee of a family trust (not available for businesses or companies);
- not be in default under any loan contract or Credit Card contract; and
- have a total customer exposure or approved credit limit of $150,000 or more.

4. General conditions for the Home Package Plus

Can joint applicants apply?

Yes, provided that the Package Everyday Options account is held jointly by all applicants wishing to participate in the Package.

All other products in the Product Offer information table can be held by any one of the Package Everyday Options account holders, solely.

You cannot add products which you hold jointly with third parties. Where the Package is held by a Trustee, you cannot add products held by beneficiaries.

You can have up to a maximum of four Eligible Credit Cards in a Package, however only one Eligible Credit Card is permitted to be held by each Everyday Options joint account holder.

Package Fee

A Package Fee of $375 is payable when Suncorp Bank has activated your Home Package Plus.

The Package Fee is then charged annually to your Mandatory Account on each anniversary of the initial Package Fee charge date.

If you cancel your participation in the Package, the standard fees and charges applicable to the respective Products will apply from the following month.

Suncorp Bank can change the Package Fee on giving you the required notice.

Can you add existing products you hold to a Package?

Yes. You can add any existing product you hold that is listed in the Product Offer information table to a Package.

Before you can add an Eligible Home Loan or Eligible Credit Card to the Package, a Variation Request is required.

Where a product is added to the Package, the relevant Product Offer will apply to that product from the date of inclusion in the Package.

Any interest or fees that have already been charged to a product prior to the date of inclusion in the Package will not be refunded.

Can you add new products to an existing Package?

Yes. New products can be added to your existing Package (after approval of your application for the new product) at any time that you hold the Package.

The issuer of the products eligibility criteria apply and each application must meet the approval guidelines for that particular product to qualify for the relevant Package Product Offers.

Cancellation of the Package

You can remain in the Package for so long as you continue to hold the Everyday Options account and an Eligible Home Loan and pay the Package Fee.

The Package Fee is payable to your Mandatory Account and will continue to apply and be charged until you advise Suncorp Bank that you want to cancel your participation in the Package.

You can cancel your participation in the Package by advising Suncorp Bank in writing (a Variation Request Form to cancel your Package is available on request). Once you cancel your Package, all relevant Package benefits specified in the Product Offer information table will cease to apply and the standard terms and conditions of each product including fees and charges will apply.

You can remove individual products from the Package at any time. If you wish to remove a Eligible Home Loan or Eligible Credit Card from the Package, all borrowers or credit card holders will be required to sign a Variation Request Form.

5. Suncorp Bank can modify, withdraw or terminate the Package

Suncorp Bank may withdraw the concessions and benefits that apply under your Package immediately, without notice to you, if your Everyday Options account or Mandatory Account is closed or if you fail to pay the Package Fee when it is due or you vary your Eligible Home Loan to a product which is not listed as an Eligible Home Loan.

Suncorp Bank can withdraw the Package concessions and benefits that apply to loans or credit cards after 30 days notice in writing if an Event of Default as specified in your credit contract occurs.

Suncorp Bank may change the terms and conditions of the Package from time to time for any of the reasons listed in the change provision in the terms and conditions that apply to your facilities. Suncorp Bank may withdraw or change the Product Offers. You will be provided with the following notice of such changes.

If Suncorp Bank believes a change will be unfavourable to you or introduces a new fee, premium or charge.	Suncorp Bank will notify you in writing at least 30 days prior to the change.
If Suncorp Bank makes any other change to the amount of fees or a change in the frequency or time for payment of fees.	Suncorp Bank will inform you by notice in a newspaper circulating throughout the State no later than 30 days prior to the day on which the change takes place.
If Suncorp Bank makes general changes that reduce your obligations or changes that are favourable to you.	Suncorp Bank will notify you by advertising in the newspaper circulating throughout the State no later than one calendar day prior to the change taking effect.

These obligations are in addition to obligations that may apply under the terms and conditions of your facilities.

6. Product Offers

The Product Offers set out in the table are currently available for this Package. All products are available to approved applicants only. The Product Offers are not available in conjunction with other special offers, discounts, concessions or promotions.

Product Offers are correct at the time of publication of this document and are subject to change without notice. Any Product Offer can be withdrawn at any time without notice unless required by law.

7. Specific Conditions for Product Offers

Everyday Options Account - Home Loan Offset facilities

To activate the 100% Home Loan Offset facility against a Standard Variable Home Loan, the account holder of the Everyday Options account and linked sub-accounts must also be a borrower on the linked Standard Variable Home Loan.

The Everyday Options accounts cannot be held jointly with a third party who is not a borrower on the loan.

You will not be paid interest on balances in your Everyday Options account and linked sub-account/s whilst they are operating as an Offset facility. Any balances in your Everyday Options account and linked sub-account/s that are subject to a flexiRate cannot operate as part of an Offset facility.

Refer to the Personal Deposit Product Information Document for further information.

Suncorp Bank Clear Options/Eligible Credit Cards
